Athena Scholar Program Course Reflection

Name: ________________________________________________

Email: ________________________________________________

Course Number: __________________________________________

Elective title: ______________________________________________

Semester taken: ___________ Grade Received: ___________

Please note that you cannot P/D/F an Athena Elective and you must receive a grade of a C or better in order to fulfill the elective.

☐ Course listed on Athena approved list

☐ Course not listed on Athena approved list but received pre-approval from Administrative Director, Student Programs

Brief synopsis of final paper/project written/performed for class:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

How did this class make you think about: (answer those that are applicable to this course)

Women and Leadership? ● Leadership in general? ● Women’s place in society? ● Gender Dynamics within leadership? ● How does leadership affect positively or negatively systems of power? ● How does gender challenge (or not challenge) systems of power? ● How leadership can be manifested in various physical (body movement, language, etc.) ways?

Please attach your answers to this sheet. Your essay should be between 2-3 pages total.

You must submit this reflection at the end of the semester of when the class was taken. The course will not count as an elective until the reflection is turned in. Fall course reflections are due by January 10th. Spring course reflections are due by June 10th. Late submissions will not be accepted. Return completed form to the Athena Center office in the Vagelos Alumnae Center or by emailing Sarit at sabramow@barnard.edu.